BULLETIN BOARD GUIDELINES PP 43

1. Bulletin boards with glass covers are reserved for the activities labeled.
2. The religious bulletin board may be used by a church or para-church organization having member connections with Trailer Estates.
3. The travel bulletin boards are primarily for the use of residents of Trailer Estates who are sponsoring, leading or participating in a group.
4. The bulletin boards (2) on the southwest side of the Post Office door are reserved for items of general interest to residents.
5. The bulletin board on the northwest side of the Post Office door is divided by a metal strip into two sections. The largest section will be for Trailer Estates activities only. The smaller section will accommodate community activities of interest to residents. When this area is full, the bulletin board on the northwest corner of the Small Hall will also be available for such postings. Postings on these boards will be no larger than 8 ½" x 11". All postings will be in good taste. No items derogatory to any individual may be posted. Nothing that might be construed as political shall appear.
6. The bulletin board on the north side of the east wall in front of the Post Office will provide a space for 3 x 5 cards, which will include areas for rentals, sales, and miscellaneous. Only 3 x 5 cards may be used; and if tear offs are provided, they must be part of the 3 x 5 card. These spaces will be reserved for the use of residents only with a maximum of three (3) cards per resident.
7. No bulletin boards will have commercial advertisements. The Trailer Estates Tribune provides a venue for commercial advertisers.
8. Bulletin boards will be reviewed on the last evening of the month or the first morning of the next month. All items will be removed from the sales boards. All other boards will have items removed if the event listed has expired.
